Successful Artistry in Wood Show

We had 40 Artists and 202 carvings were entered for judging. James Hooper won 'Best of Show' for his carving 'Hello Darlin', David Rogers won 1st Runner-up for his 'Dragon' and Bridges Dillehay won 2nd Runner-up for his 'Bark Man', and Richard White won 'Best of Intermediate' for his 'Cane'. We had 265 visitors through the door and many, many very creative and well done carvings and art were on display. We are still compiling the results of the show and waiting for all of the bills to come in. We will share the final numbers when they are available. Next year's show will be moved back to, October 31, and November 1, 2015. Our competition judge is yet to be determined, but the show will be held at the same location.

Mark Gargac's Seminar

Mark Gargac finished judging our show and stayed over an extra three days to offer us a really great class in carving either a Cowboy or a Mountain Man. Ten of us took advantage of the class to participate in a different way of teaching that was very informative and everyone learned something. The carving involved a great deal of finely carved detail on one of his roughouts. The hair, fur, and clothing were detailed and everyone did a really fine job under his instruction. Even the most experienced carvers indicated that it took a lot of work to get it right, but the results were surely worth the effort.

November Meeting

We will have an Auction at the November meeting with all proceeds going to the club. You can bring whatever you want (items pertaining to woodcarving are preferred), but if the item doesn't sell, you will need to take it back home with you.

2015 Election of Officers

At the October club meeting the following members were nominated for officers:

President: Steve Brandt
Vice President: Tim Hataway
Treasurer: John Amicon
Secretary: Pat Priest

More nominations may be presented from the floor at the November meeting if the person being nominated has been contacted and agrees to the nomination. The vote will be taken at the November meeting.

National Caricature Carvers of America – 2014

The national CCA carving competition was held this last August in Converse, ID. Tim Hataway received a special invitation to the event after receiving a CCA Merit Award at the Amarillo show last year. Tim sent two carvings to the competition and won 4th place and 5th place in the rough out category. You can see all the winners on their web site at www.cca-carvers.org

Welcome to our club!!

Affair of the Heart

We were well represented at Affair of the Heart. There were a number of inquiries about our club and people were made aware of woodcarving in Oklahoma City. Thanks to Pete Zachry, Bob Smith, Scott Haycox, Richard Dalke, Fred Self, D J Boyce, Evelyn Moore and Pat Priest for representing our club so well.

Nativity Raffle Winner

The Nativity scene raffle was won by Sally White of our club. She and Richard have been members of our club for several years and were very pleased to win the Nativity scene. The Nativity was very successful as a fundraiser for our show. "Thank You" to all the carvers who participated in carving and selling tickets. A special thank you goes to Nancy Wallace who painted the Nativity. She did a great job!!

There are always questions as we begin looking forward to next year's show. One is, "Did you enjoy the style of Nativity we did this year?" If you want to do that style again or maybe something different, please let Kent or Richard or one of the officers know. We are always open to suggestions.
