2016 CLUB DUES

Remember the dues are still only $24.00 per year for a family membership. We only have about half of them collected. John Amicon will accept your cash or check at any time. Thanks for taking care of this club business in a timely manner.

MARCH PROGRAM

Bring a carving you are working on or have finished to share with the rest of the club. Also, if you have a carving that someone has given you or you have bought, it would be a good time to share it with the club. Be prepared to share your finishing techniques and secrets. Last meeting we had no show and tell, so we would like to have plenty this month. Please bring and share your work. It is good to share our tricks with each other.

FEBRUARY PROGRAM

By D.J. Boyce

Thanks to D.J. Boyce for doing the February program for the club. He demonstrated how he put together his boxes for his different projects and how he finished out the insides of the boxes. He also had the help of his capable assistant Mary Boyce.

Upcoming Shows and Events

Several of our members will be going to the Ozark Woodcarver's classes in Springfield, MO on March 14th thru 18th. They should be coming back with some great carvings to show and even greater stories (some of which might even be true.)

Great Plains Woodcarving Show

This show will be in Wichita, Kansas on May 14th & 15th. This year is their 50th Anniversary Show. It is held at the Cessna Activity Center, 2744 South George Washington Blvd., Wichita, Kansas. It is only a couple of hours drive up I-35 and always has a lot of great carvings and good vendors including Moore Roughouts and Heinecke Wood Products.

Woodcarving Rendezvous, Branson, MO

June 5th -10th

This is the great time to learn from some of the great instructors in our art. Some of them are Ed Zinger and Harold Enlow in caricatures, John Engler in relief Gerald Sears in Human Figures. There will also be classes by Jim Willis in Realistic Animals and Stu Martin in Realistic Human Figures. The cost is $185 plus the cost of your Roughouts. This is a great opportunity to learn from some really good teachers.

TULSA SHOW HAS A NEW NAME

Changes have been made to the Tulsa show this year including the name. The new name is Woodcarving & Folk Arts festival. Dates for the show are June 10-11 at the Union Multipurpose Activity Center, 6836 S. Mingo Rd, Tulsa, OK. This year the show will include woodcarving, stained glass, ceramics, mosaics, blacksmithing, gourds, beading, leather working, toile painting, jewelry, letterpress printing and more. It should be interesting. Contact: eowa.us

SHOWCASE OF WOODCARVINGS

The Hataway family took a trip to Charlotte, North Carolina in February to allow Tim and Madison to enter some of their work. The drive was beautiful (quite long), but the show was great and the people were even greater. We felt very welcome and Tim and Madison came away winning big. Madison won best of category on her caricature giraffe and a blue ribbon on it and also her woodburning of the house from the movie "Psycho" won a blue ribbon. You will have to ask Tim about all his ribbons, he came home with a handful of them. We met and visited with Tom Wolfe and Peter Ortel (retired NYFD). It was a great time and beautiful country.
